

10th June 2016 – Weekly Newsletter

Ofsted

I am delighted to let everyone know that our Ofsted Report has now been published. Children will be bringing home a copy for each family tonight. It is wonderful that the inspectors recognised that Cockton Hill Infants' School is a good school which gives children an outstanding start to their school life. Thank you to all children, parents, staff and governors for your support!

Transition

This half term we begin process of preparing children for move to next teacher. We now know that Class 5 will move to Mr Ball's class and Class 6 will move to Miss Trow's class in the Junior School.

Busy next week:
