

18th November 2016 – Weekly Newsletter

Banner Parade

Look forward to seeing lots of parents and children tonight at the Reindeer Christmas Parade. Meeting from 4pm at Boots corner on Newgate Street. Parade starts at 4.30pm.

Christmas Fair

Thank you to everyone who has sent in items for our Christmas Fair on 1st December. Keep the donations coming please!

Parents Open Days

Remember to come in to talk to your child's teacher next week. Find out how they are progressing and look at their work. Everyone should have received a time, if not, please contact the school office.

"Bling your bike or scooter" Competition

This year we will again be holding a "Bling your bike or scooter" competition. We are looking for bright, festive and creatively decorated bikes and scooters. Even though the weather is changing, try you best to cycle or scoot to school. Prizes will be given to all entries, with a winner from each year group.

Fairtrade cookery workshop

We had good participation from parents at our Year 1 Fairtrade Cookery Workshop this morning. Everyone enjoyed the tasty snacks made by Sarah.

Congratulations to this week's achievers:
