Success all round!

Huge congratulations to one of our staff members and two of our parents who successfully graduated from their university-level studies on Wednesday evening following two years of study at Bishop Auckland College! If any other parents are interested in studying anything from a basic course up to university level study then please contact us or speak to Angela Quinn or Katy Dixon, Parent Governors, for more information.

Raffle prizes still to be collected – please check your tickets and call at the main office. Thank you.

After school care

Drama and Dance sessions have finished for this term, however we still continue with After School Childcare, Monday to Thursday 3pm until 5.30pm for the next 2 weeks. The cost is £3 per child for the first hour and £1 per child for each half hour after 4pm. You can pay on the day – please send to school in a NAMED ENVELOPE.
